WELCOME! IF YOU'RE READING
THIS IT MEANS YOU ARE CONSIDERING A PHOTOSHOOT WITH ME. HOW ARE YOU FEELING?
EXCITED OR UNSURE? MAYBE
A LITTLE BIT NERVOUS?
TAKE A DEEP BREATH AND
LET ME TELL YOU SOMETHING -

It isn't easy to be in front of camera. But there is so much power in investing in the creation of your own positive imagery. In giving yourself permission to claim space for your own story, expand into your natural beauty, and breathe into the power of being confident in your own skin. Let me help you create that space for yourself.

The magic of my shoots is that they place equal emphasis on the creative process as they do on the final products. Let's live and create together in the right now. Why not right? We are all always growing, changing, and learning through life. Let's stop for a minute together, and capture this moment in your life process. There is no need to strive for perfection in my studio. Let the shoot be whatever you need it to be for yourself: a healing exploration, an act of empowerment, a self-reflection, or even just a moment in time, to pause, laugh, dance, and make a bit of creative magic.

Come as you are... in your strength, softness, mess, and courage. All of it, to me, is absolutely beautiful.

I'm here to help you tell your story. I can't wait to work with you.

Love,
Meiying

KIND WORDS

“Meiying has a spirit that is truly unmatched. She is someone graced with the gift of empathy, a part of her nature that she naturally brings to a photo shoot. She creates a blissful and comfortable atmosphere for you to be yourself in front of her lens. Like most, I often come from a critical place when looking at myself in a photograph. I’m being totally candid when I say that I loved every single image that Meiying took of me during our last photo shoot.”

– Alice

“Working with Meiyng is an incredible way to discover and blossom into one’s femininity. Thanks to her kind nature and enthusiasm, she brings you where you never thought you could go and allows you to open up in front of her lens. Always gentle and kind, she is truly a giver of self-confidence.”

– Myriam

“Meiying is someone you want on the other side of the lens... her warm nature and generosity knows no bounds. She allows you to be your true, unapologetic, beautiful self...”

– Emily

“Meiying has an extraordinary gift for bringing her client’s dreams to life. Everything about my experience with her behind the camera was magical; she made me feel so natural in front of the camera, helping to create an atmosphere where all that exists is love, happiness, and spontaneity. I am continually amazed by her talent for capturing people exactly as they are, in motion, in the art and beauty that it means to be human.”
